(Use as much space as you need. Attach extra sheets if necessary.)

On 12-09-2017, I attempted to get some fresh air because I was suffering from C.O.P.D., (a pulmonary disease) which I have had for 5 years. The director of security, the doorman of Olympia Towers Condominium (I was detained in the lobby before making it out the door) another security officer, and a man who identified himself as "I am a Chicago Police Officer." I told them "I can't breathe," yet I was still forced back into Neiman Marcus' Store.

Once inside of the security office, at Neiman's I was stripped of my clothing, and searched. My Tiffany necklace, Gucci prescription eyeglasses, a bottle of Knob Creek whiskey (purchased as a Christmas gift). Many other items were stolen from my backpack, like my electric razor, nail clippers, etc. Too many items to recall.

I remember entering the Michigan Ave (747 North) entrance, and how strange I felt coming in from this entrance. My Oxygen level was dropping from the chemicals Neimans uses.

It took over an hour to get medical attention from a hospital, (Northwestern) Simply around the corner and I was not allowed to use my inhaler, or sinus pills. Even the "arresting" Chicago Police Officers, who came to Neimans, were busy "shopping" in my belongings while the "gang" of security, and officers bided on what each one wanted. I told the Chicago Police Officers when they came, I could not breathe, and they were saying they had "paperwork" to do, instead of taking me to the hospital.

When the ambulance finally arrived, the Police would not allow the paramedics to come inside the store with the stretcher. I was forced to walk "dizzily" through the store handcuffed so tight, my hands turned purple and I suffered mental anguish. I was immediately put on oxygen at the scene. I had told store security that I had major surgery for head trauma 5 months earlier (July 2017) I could have died because of these delays in medical attention, and for the States Attorney to prosecute me after near death experiences seem awfully malicious.

V. Relief:

State briefly exactly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Cite no cases or statutes.

I am seeking $500,000.00 in damages, plus punitive damages for stealing my property, and mental anguish. And to change the way Chicago police officers are hired to private contractors who conspire and bend the law to make things look legal; but stealing, killing, and destroying are the outcome of police officers working in the private sector
